

REBECCA KATHERINE MARCHIEL
CURRICULUM VITAE

BISHOP HALL, DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI
UNIVERSITY, MS 38677
rkmarchi@olemiss.edu 586.212.7476

EMPLOYMENT

University of Mississippi • Oxford, MS
Assistant Professor of History, Fall 2015-present

Franklin & Marshall College • Lancaster, PA
Visiting Assistant Professor of History, Fall 2014-Spring 2015

EDUCATION

Northwestern University • Evanston, IL
Ph.D. in History, September 2014
M.A. in History, June 2008

University of Michigan • Ann Arbor, MI
B.A. in History with High Honors, May 2005

PUBLICATIONS

After Redlining: The Urban Reinvestment Movement in the Era of Financial Reregulation (University of Chicago Press “Historical Studies of Urban America” series, forthcoming August 2020).

“Urban Decline: The Staying Power of a Postwar Story,” Journal of Urban History (published online June 2018; print edition forthcoming).

“Jimmy Carter’s Greenline: The Financial Turn in National Urban Policy” (in progress for submission to the Journal of Policy History).

FELLOWSHIPS AND AWARDS

Charles Warren Center, Fellow, History of American Capitalism, Harvard University • 2015-16

Council of Graduate Schools/ProQuest Distinguished Dissertation Award Finalist • 2015

Arch Dalrymple III Department of History Research Travel Grant, University of Mississippi • 2016

Harold Perkin Prize for Best History Dissertation, Northwestern University • 2015

Weinberg College Outstanding Graduate Teacher Award, Northwestern University • 2013

Lacey Baldwin Smith Prize for Teaching Excellence, Northwestern History Department • 2012

Northwestern Graduate School Presidential Fellowship Nominee, History Department • 2011

Delores Zohrab Liebmann Fellowship Nominee, Northwestern University • 2011

Northwestern University Graduate Research Grant • 2011

Gerald R. Ford Presidential Foundation Research Travel Grant • 2010

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION AND PRESENTATIONS

Author Meets Critics Panel on Keeanga-Yamattha Taylor's Race for Profit, Association for the Study of African American Life and History Annual Meeting, October 2019.

"Urbanites' Fight for Capital during 1980s Financial Deregulation," Organization of American Historians Annual Meeting, April 2018.

"A Reason to Hope: Community Investment and Affordable Housing in Post-Industrial Cities," Urban History Association Annual Meeting, October 2016.

"Communities Must Be Vigilant: The Financial Turn in National Urban Policy," Massachusetts Historical Society, April 2016.

"It's Our Money: Defending Financial Common Sense in a Collapsing New Deal Order," Harvard University's Charles Warren Center for Studies in American History, April 2016.

"Risk, Red Lines, and the Origins of the Urban Reinvestment Movement," Business History Conference, June 2015.

"We've Been Volckerized': Grassroots Activism against the Monetarist Experiment," Joint Conference of the Labor and Working-Class History Association and the Working-Class Studies Association, May 2015.

"Bridging the High School/College Divide: Conversations toward Creating a Comprehensive History Pedagogy," American Historical Association Annual Meeting, January 2015.

"Written Off: Risky Neighborhoods, Safe Suburbs, and Grassroots Struggles over Home Financing in 1970s Metro-Chicago," Urban History Association Annual Meeting, October 2014.

"Let's Make the Market Work for Us': How Community Activists Used Loans to Combat the Urban Crisis, 1975-1989," Policy History Conference, June 2014.

"Communities Must be Vigilant': The Mixed Results of Grassroots Financial Regulation through the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977," Association for the Study of African American Life and History Annual Meeting, October 2013.

"Let's Make the Market Work for Us': How Community Activists Used Loans to Combat the Urban Crisis, 1975-1989," at "Cultures of Borrowing: Debt in History" conference, Northwestern University, March 2013.

"It's Our Money': How 1970s Urban Activists Became Grassroots Financial Regulators," Policy History Conference, June 2012.

"Where Are Our Children Going to Live?': The Family and Activism for Financial Reinvestment in 1970s American Cities," at "Histories of the Family: Intersections between Public and Private Life" conference, Northwestern University, June 2012.

"Let's Make the Market Work for Us': Community-Bank Partnerships as an Alternative to State-Led Urban Renewal," Organization of American Historians Annual Meeting, April 2012.

“‘Communities Must be Vigilant’: The Mixed Results of Grassroots Financial Regulation through the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977,” Business History Conference, March 2012.

“From the Neighborhood to the Nation: How 1970s Urbanites Broadened Alinsky-Style Community Organizing,” Social Science History Association Annual Meeting, November 2011.

“Mutual Interrogation: A Method for Establishing Trust during Oral Interviews,” at “Old Debates and New Challenges in Oral History” conference, Fundacao Getulio Vargas Center for Research and Documentation, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, June 2011.

“‘It’s Our Money’: How 1970s Urban Activists Became Grassroots Financial Regulators,” at “The Lived Experience of the State: An Interdisciplinary Conference,” Duke University, March 2011.

“Occupy Wall Street in Historical Perspective,” Public Affairs Residential College, Northwestern University (October 2011)

“Election 2010: The Midterms in Historical Perspective,” Public Affairs Residential College, Northwestern University (October 2010).

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Primary Instructor

Readings in U.S. Urban History (graduate seminar)

History of U.S. Capitalism (graduate seminar)

Wall Street and Its Critics (seminar/lecture course)

U.S. Economic History (lecture course)

U.S. since 1945 (seminar)

U.S. History, 1865 to present (introductory survey)

Social Movements in the U.S. (research seminar)

The American Consumer, 1880s to present (research seminar)

Modern U.S. Political History (research seminar)

American Individualism (one-on-one tutorial in American Studies)

Where We Live (undergraduate research seminar)

Doing Local History (research seminar)

Teaching Assistant

U.S. History to 1865

U.S. History, 1865 to present

U.S. Gay and Lesbian History

Development of the Modern American City to 1880s

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

Peer-Reviewer of Manuscripts

Journal of Urban History (JUH)

Modern American History (MAH)

Membership in Professional Associations

American Historical Association

Business History Association

Labor and Working-Class Historians Association

Organization of American Historians

Urban History Association

DEPARTMENTAL AND UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Member, Salary Committee, Department of History, 2016

Member, Search Committee, 20th-C. U.S. History (two positions), Department of History, 2016

Member, Undergraduate Committee, Department of History, 2016-present

Advisor, Undergraduate History Majors, 2017-present

MENTORING EXPERIENCE

Graduate Advisor, Teagle Program for Graduate Training in Teaching History, 2013-2014

Designed a program for 25 graduate students in Northwestern's History department to explore evidence-based teaching

Public Affairs Residential College, Assistant Master and Graduate Fellow • June 2011-June 2014

Worked with faculty to direct the intellectual life of the college and mentored the college's 105 undergraduate students

Teaching Coordinator • September 2012-June 2013

Facilitated workshops to improve teaching among history teaching assistants

Graduate Teaching Certificate Program, Mentor • September 2012-June 2013

Provided guidance for graduate-student participants in a 12-month program on course design

Searle Center for Teaching Excellence Teaching Consultant • September 2012-June 2014

Conducted focus group evaluations for Northwestern instructors working to improve their teaching

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

LOU Home (nonprofit affordable housing developer) • Board Member • April 2017-present

Magnolia Montessori School • Outreach Chair • August 2018-May 2019

Chicago History Fair Volunteer • November 2010-March 2013

Sargent Shriver National Center on Poverty Law • Media and Communications Assistant • August 2005-July 2007

Gads Hill Center, Adult ESL Instructor • 2005-2007

REFERENCES

Nancy MacLean, Duke University
nancy.maclea@duke.edu

Michael Allen, Northwestern University
m-allen1@northwestern.edu

Henry Binford, Northwestern University
hcbi@northwestern.edu

Daniel Immerwahr, Northwestern University
daniel.immerwahr@northwestern.edu

Dennis Deslippe, Franklin & Marshall College
ddeslipp@fandm.edu

Matthew Lassiter, University of Michigan
mlassite@umich.edu